Gary. . .

in association with SGL

Hello and welcome to Don O'Riordan, the players supporters and officials of Torquay United Football Club.

As usual the Easter programme has been a crucial time for many clubs including ourselves. I have been saying for a few weeks now that performance no longer matters, only results. Last weekend proved that beyond argument.

We are not kidding ourselves by thinking we are playing well at the moment but during these nervous times on sometimes bobbly pitches we are competing, playing with great passion and working harder than sometimes seems possible.

The unselfish professional manner in which the lads prepared themselves last week was of great credit to them.

No sooner than the crowd had disappeared from the Wigan game, the players were back on the pitch doing an extensive warm down to rid muscles of the lactic acid that builds up after a game, then back into the changing rooms eating a high carbohydrate meal to replenish lost energy. Saturday night was not for going out celebrating our win but preparing for Sunday morning's training, stretching, jogging, loosening off, leg massage, again trying to get rid of the lactic acid which makes the legs feel stiff. Monday morning again in for training, working on our organisation set plays, corners etc. Then because of the work load that we know the two strikers would have, Matt Carmichael, Allan Smart, Mike Conroy and Graham Lancashire agreed to share the game. With Matt and Allan running themselves into the ground unselfishly during the first half leaving Mick and Graham to come on with fresh legs in the second half.

This team spirit, John Vaughan's brilliant display and you supporters making it seem like a home game pulled us through when we were not playing particularly well.

We must not think that we are now in the play-offs, another four points are needed yet. After they are achieved the job really starts.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT LAST WEEK-END. CAN WE MAKE IT EVEN BETTER TODAY?

Gary

FROM THE SECRETARY

with Audrey Shaw

I am sure you will all agree that as North End supporters we had a good bank holiday, despite the awful weather at Rochdale on Easter Monday we all returned home happy after having secured maximum points from the bank holiday fixtures. There is certainly a great sense of optimism that we can now reach the play-offs. Obviously, if this is the situation it will affect the arrangements with regard to season tickets for next season. We are hoping to be able to introduce a scheme which we are sure will be of interest to many of you and will benefit both current season ticket holders and encourage other supporters to purchase a season ticket. Arrangements have been put on hold for the time being but as soon as we know which division we will be playing in then an announcement will be made in the local press. Similarly we are being asked about season ticket holders and their seats in the West Stand for next season. Again the possibility of the play-offs has delayed the starting of the development of the West Stand and once again we ask you to be patient. As soon as we are in a position to let you have any more information then we will certainly do so.

Looking ahead to the last game of the season at Scunthorpe, this will definitely be "All Ticket" and they will be priced at £8.00 with no concessions. They will go on sale to season ticket holders from Monday and will be strictly one per season ticket.

Audrey Shaw
Club Secretary

A BIG THANK YOU

At the recent Gillingham match a collection was made for the Kelly family who tragically lost two children in a house fire. Over £1300 was raised and the family would like to thank all the supporters who contributed to the fund.
Our thoughts are with the family.

Dear Sir,

Would it be possible to say a "thank you" to all the people who wrote to me when my letter was printed in the programme in February? First of all can I say "hello" to my new penfriend, Sara Pilkington, and thank you very much to Jack Poston for the programme badges and information. Don for the programme, (I couldn't reply because you didn't send your address), and Claire Anyon. PNE supporters are great. I hope to see you at Hull City in the 2nd division next season. Also can I say hello to Graeme Atkinson and hope to see you soon.

Love
Laura Holmes

BAMBER BRIDGE

TRIUMPH AT DEEPDALE

On Monday evening 10/4/95, Deepdale once again played host to a representative cup final after missing out for several seasons due to having the plastic pitch. Near neighbours Bamber Bridge, with half their team having PNE connections, took on Morecambe F.C., the holders of the ATS Lancashire Challenge Trophy.

It was Bamber Bridge's first appearance in the final whereas Morecambe have won the trophy, formerly known as the Lancs. Junior Cup, on no more than eight occasions. They actually won their first final here at Deepdale in 1926 when more than 10,600 saw them defeat Chorley at the third attempt.

The game against Bamber Bridge, which was played before a good, boisterous atmosphere created by the 2,180 fans, was a pleasure to watch from a neutral's point of view as chances were created and squandered. The "underdogs" from just down the road held the upper hand in the first half and scored twice before half time, through Mark Edwards (18 mins) and Steve Senior (42 mins). Senior, the former North End full back took possession of the ball around the centre circle and advanced. Then from around 25 yards out he let fly with a tremendous shot which had GOAL written all over it. It beat McIlhargey, the former Blackpool goalkeeper all ends up much to the delight of the 'Brig' fans on the Town End. As expected Morecambe came out fighting in the second half and pulled one goal back on 78 minutes when John Coleman lashed home a great shot from well outside the area. Although it was mainly one way traffic in Morecambe's favour during the second half woeful finishing let them down, but they could have equalised in the dying minutes but for a goal-line clearance from goal hero Senior.

P.S. for the programme collectors information a 12 page black & white programme was issued, price 50p.

Saturday 29th April 1995
The Endsleigh Insurance League Division Three Preston North End v Hartlepool United
Kick-off 3.00pm

Steve Holmes
enjoyed his short loan spell in the North East

This season cannot finish quick enough for United, for they have struggled too close for comfort at the bottom of the league. Presently they lie 20th with only Exeter City and Scarborough below them. But after two spirited performances over the Easter period they have eased their worries with four points being hard fought for. Last Saturday Gary Henderson scored in the last minute which looked to be a certain winner, but Torquay had travelled a long way as not to fall at the last fence. Only thirty seconds later Richard Hancox slid in the equaliser in a 1-1 draw. On Easter Monday Hartlepool became party-poopers by snatching a 1-0 victory at Carlisle thanks to a Keith Houchen goal.
North End's promising defender Steve Holmes signed for pool on a months loanm in February but suffered ligament damage and was forced to return to Deepdale.

Today Hartlepool United entertain Hereford United.

AROUND DIVISION THREE

With Mike Payne

Many of the older readers of this column will remember the days when Easter meant three games in four days. Nowadays, of course, it is usually only two games to play, which is just as well for Carlisle who have at last hit their lean spell! North End fans will say that their two straight defeats against Bury and Hartlepool have come about three months too late! But to our lads eternal credit they gained maximum points over the holiday and you can ask no more than that. In fact that is eleven games without a defeat and 17 games with only one defeat, promotion form! Simon Davey's well taken goal at Rochdale sets the club up nicely for the final run in and almost certain play-off games.

Another club to take maximum points from their two holiday games was Chesterfield and for the first time this season Carlisle must look over their shoulders as the Third Division Championship has not quite settled at Brunton Park. The midland side hit three without reply against struggling Northampton and then had the result of the day on Easter Monday when they won 3 - 1 at Doncaster. Free scoring Mansfield pipped Scarborough 3 - 2, but then were held at Hereford to a rare goalless draw. Doncaster's five goal thrashing of Scunthorpe on their own ground last Saturday was inspired by a Mickey Norbury hat-trick. But North End's closest challengers then slipped up when they lost that match against Chesterfield. Mike Cecere hit his 15th goal of the season for Exeter in the 1 - 1 home draw with Hereford who had another familiar name on the score-sheet, Steve White, who scored his 18th of the season. Another 1 - 1 draw came at Hartlepool when today's visitors here, Torquay, scored in the 90th minute after the home side had taken the lead.....in the 89th! It looked for a long time as though Torquay would maintain last year's fine run to the play-offs, but alas for them, recent results have not gone their way. Barnet's manager, Ray

Mickey Norbury
hitting three at Scunthorpe

Clemence wrote off his side's chances of reaching the play-offs after his side's 2 - 1 defeat at Gillingham. But once again the prolific Dougie Freedman was on target for them. I wonder if the Scottish U-21 player will still be in Division Three next season?

Fulham had a mixed Easter, being thrashed 5 - 2 at Colchester before recovering to beat the in form Gillingham side by a single goal from Morgan. Two big crowds caught the eye, of course our 10,238 against Wigan, another magnificent turn out, and at last Carlisle had a good crowd again when 10,242 turned up for their match at Hartlepool. Quite a few of them probably won't be back after their result though!

Leading scorers:- 27 Freedman (Barnet), 25 Lightbourne (Walsall), 24 Stant (Bury - 15 for Cardiff), Wilkinson (Mansfield), 22 Reeves (Carlisle), 20 Wilson (Walsall).

I expect, like me, at this time of the season you study the league table and try to work out who needs to beat who with regards to helping North End's cause. Chesterfield's win at Doncaster was just the sort of result we needed as was Hereford's draw with Mansfield. But do you, also like me, find that it becomes a sort of paranoia? Usually the results never go quite as I plan them! And Colchester are the hardest team to work out, I reckon I have written them off at least ten times but they still keep coming back into the reckoning!

Ex PNE Players news:-

Nathan Peel must be loving every minute of his move to Rotherham as he can't stop scoring. He was on target again on Monday in Rotherhams match at Bradford as was Colin Greenall for Lincoln in their 3 - 3 draw with Scunthorpe. Apart from Norbury's hat-trick for Doncaster in that 5 - 0 win at Scunthorpe last weekend Steve Harper also scored. Ian Bogie also seems to be enjoying his new surroundings and scored from the penalty spot as Port Vale fought back from three down to draw at Reading. My regulars, Tony Ellis and Ronnie Jepson seem to have dried up lately but I understand that Alan Kelly has been in fine form for Sheffield United. And one other item from Scotland, is that Neil Whitworth, another of the players we had on loan from Manchester United in the past, has scored three goals in two games for Kilmarnock, thus helping the club to virtual safety at the bottom of their Premier Division.

TORQUAY UNITED

TORQUAY UNITED

In between the goalposts for todays visitors will most probably be Ashley Bayes. Bayes joined Torquay United from Brentford in August 1993 and took over from Matthew Lowe in October and made 37 appearances in 1993/94. The 22 year old only made 4 league appearances in 5 years at Griffin Park where he obtained an England U19 Youth Team Cap. Bayes' debutees are Y.T.S. trainees ADRIAN TUCKER and TIM THORNLEY both of whom have made representative appearances at junior levels for Wales and England respectively.

There is the experience of TOM KELLY, KEVIN HODGES and DON O'RIODAN and the youth of LEE BARROW, CHRIS CURRAN, DARREN MOORE and SCOTT STAMPS. 30 year old Kelly is in his second spell with Torquay for whom he has made 211 appearances up to the end of the 1993/1994 season. Hodges joined Torquay in December 1992 from neighbours Plymouth Argyle for whom the 34 year old made 615 appearances. O'Riordan joined Torquay in February 1993 from Notts County and was elected to Player Manager in May 1993. Has made 54 appearances for the Gulls to the end of the 1993/94 season to add to a further 569 appearances for Derby County, Doncaster Rovers, Preston North End, Carlisle United, Middlesborough, Grimsby Town, Mansfield and Notts County. Barrow joined Torquay from Scarborough for whom he made 14 appearances. The 21 year old started his career with Notts County and at the end of the 1993/94 season had made 41 appearances for Torquay. Stamps is a 19 year old former Y.T.S trainee in his second year as a professional who has made 9 appearances so far. Moore is another former Y.T.S trainee who is only 20 years old but in 1992/93 was Torquay's Player of the Year. A big domineering Centre Half, Moore has played 86 times for Torquay of the end of the 1993/94 season and scored 7 goals. Team Captain is former Y.T.S. lad CHRIS CURRAN. 22 year old Curran began at Plainmoor as a Full Back and has been converted into a Centre Half and has now made 124 appearances.

In midfield is 1993/94 Player of the Year PAUL TROLLOPE. Trollope is the son of Swindon's famous John Trollope and joined Torquay in March 1992 after serving his apprenticeship at Swindon. 22 year old Trollope has made 104 appearances for Torquay last season was second top goalscorer with 11 goals. Trollope's partner in Midfield is PAUL BUCKLE who joined Torquay from Brentford in February 1994 and in 1993/94 made 18 appearances for the Gulls. 23 year old Buckle made 80 appearances for the Bees before becoming surplus to new Manager, Dave Webb's requirements. Other players available to fill Midfield berths include utility player SCOTT COLCOMBE who can also play at Full Back or on the wing. 22 year old scored against Torquay in Preston's 4-1 play-off victory last season.

Colcombe is a former Y.T.S. player West Bromwich who joined Torquay in August 1991 and in three years has made 98 appearances at Plainmoor and NICK BURTON who played 9 times for Torquay last season after his move from Portsmouth.
In March 1994 Torquay signed Nigerian International CHIMA OKORIE and Barbados International GREGORY GOODRIDGE. Both played 10 times for the Gulls in their first League spells in England and the experience gained at the tall end of last season should enable Okorie and Goodridge to set the third division alight this season.

Helping to supply the width will be IAN HATHAWAY. 25 year old Hathaway joined Torquay from Rotherham in August 1993 after spells at Mansfield and Bedworth. Having only netted 3 times from 57 appearances with his previous Clubs Hathaway scored 7 goals in 49 appearances in 1993/94 as well as laying on many others. Other members of the squad are first year Pro ELLIS LAIGHT and RICHARD HANCOX who has returned to Torquay after postponing his contract for twelve months due to glandular fever. DUANE DARBY is in his fifth season at Plainmoor after joining Torquay as a 16 year old Y.T.S. lad. Darby has now made over league appearances (including many as a substitute) and scored 24 league goals, including many important ones, at the end of the 1992/93 season that helped preserve the League status of Torquay.

Born:- 27.2.72 - Burton on Trent

Do you have any nicknames at the club?
"Big Bird is the main one, after the puppet on Sesame Street. Darren Rowbotham who plays for Crewe came up with that while we were both at Birmingham City and it's just stuck at all the clubs I've been to. John Vaughan was calling me 'Don Brennan', the bloke with the wooden leg in Coronation Street, because I was hobbling around with a broken toe recently."

Talking of which.....you've had a bad run of injuries this season. How did you get them?
"I'd had the hernia quite a while really. It developed last season and got worse and worse. Then I had the summer break and it seemed to improve itself quite a bit. I came here in the summer and it felt alright, but it got worse again the more games I played and eventually I had to have surgery on it. Strictly speaking, the injury wasn't a hernia, it's called Gilmore's Groin, but it's quite similar. It feels fine now though and hopefully the operation has done the trick. As for the broken toe, I was just messing about, kicking a ball around and I just cracked it. I was about a week away from playing and that put me back another month or so, but hopefully everything is alright now."

How much did that lay off affect your fitness?
"Quite a lot, because for the first four or five weeks after the operation, I couldn't walk, run or do anything, so I missed a lot of training. But as soon as I could run again, I was running around the park every day and I did a lot of cycling to help build my stamina up again. Alex, the physio, sent me all over the place on the bike. I cycled to Owd Nell's, Myerscough College, and The Tickled Trout. I had to bring a menu back from each pub Alex sent me to, so that he knew I'd been and he timed me as well."

You recently began your comeback with a couple of reserve team games. How did you find the pace of those games?
"Not too bad, I was really quite surprised. I don't think I played too badly in those games and I felt reasonably sharp. Even though my fitness wasn't right, I felt quicker and sharper than I had for some time, so I'm fairly happy with the way things have gone since I came back."

Who was responsible for the 'missing' posters of you in the changing room while you were injured?
"They came about because I had a bit of time off after my operation. I went back to Utoxeter, near Stoke, to visit family. I'm not sure who put them up but I would imagine it must have been Paul Raynor."

Everybody connected with Preston North End knows what a fantastic night last seasons Play-Off Semi-Final, second leg was for the club, but how did it feel from a Torquay player's point of view?
"When I was at Torquay, I think we should have beaten Preston three or four nil in the first leg and that would have finished it. Coming here with a two goal advantage meant there was always a chance that Preston could get back in it. I think a major factor in the second leg was when Darren Moore got sent off for Torquay. That changed the game completely, we were really under the cosh after that. Had he stayed on, I think Torquay would have gone through. The Torquay changing room was pretty solemn after that game. That capped off a bad week for me. My Grandad had died the night before that game, I broke my hand in the first ten minutes of the game and had to play on and then we lost."

What were your impressions of Deepdale after that night, in terms of the fans, the atmosphere and so on?
"The club is known for how big it is and it shouldn't be where it is at the moment. The atmosphere was great and the fans were superb, but being a Torquay player at the time, I found it quite hostile as well. I don't mean that in a bad way, because the atmosphere was enjoyable, but I still found it a bit intimidating. It was a great experience though."

Do you think that experience had any influence on your decision to sign for Preston?
"I think so yes. You always want to be involved with things like that. It's good to come to a club that get regular gates of nine or ten thousand and it's a bit different to playing in front of two or three thousand week in week out."

I seem to remember North End showing an interest in you quite a while before you signed. What was the delay?
"The first time John Beck came in for me was while I was at Birmingham. I came up for talks but Preston still had the plastic pitch and I didn't really fancy playing on that every other week, so I decided to go to Torquay. Things have worked out OK since I did come here though, because the grass is back and I prefer being up north because it's closer to my family."

Can you recall any amusing stories from your time at Torquay United?
"There was a lad called Lee Barrow and he had a young puppy that he couldn't get house trained. He brought it round to my flat once and it weed everywhere, so I had to throw them both out! Lee took his dog everywhere. He'd take it on reserve matches and his dog would leave parcels on the seats! I'd like to know if Lee has managed to teach his dog to go to the toilet in the right place and not in peoples flats!."

Several of the other lads claim you have the worst dress sense at the club. Do you think this is fair?
"Not at all! They only pick me because I'm tall and I stand out. I'd have said Gareth Ainsworth was worse - he's always scruffy looking! Kevin Magee won't wear anything without a label on it, he's a real poser. It could be the worst gear in the world, but if it's got a crocodile or something on it, Kev will wear it!"

A few of the lads also criticise your taste in music, saying you always play your 80's tunes. Have you anything to say in your defence?
"When I was in the team, I organised the music for the changing room. The majority seemed quite happy with dance music, but the odd boys like Moyesy and Bryson would have preferred all the 70's stuff like the Bay City Rollers and I wasn't having that!"

One of the players who mentioned you supply the music was Andy Fensome, who you have roomed with on a few away trips. Does he have any irritating habits?
"No, it's quite good rooming with Fenners, because you don't have to wait for him to come out of the bathroom. We were both able to wash at the same time, because I'd use the shower and he'd use the bidet!"

Finally Mark, is there anything you'd like to say to the fans?
"I hope you haven't forgotten about me. My name is Mark Sale and I can score the odd goal or two!"

BYGONE DAYS

with Mike Payne

Birmingham City were the visitors to Deepdale on April 21st 1990 and this match five years ago ended in a 2 - 2 draw. With North End desperate for points they put up a spirited performance in holding a promotion chasing Birmingham side. And that after giving Dennis Bailey a sixth minute goal for the visitors. Brian Mooney then produced some magic to set up a John Thomas equaliser only for Bailey to restore Birmingham's lead with a well taken shot past Alan Kelly. A second half onslaught deservedly brought Preston their reward but only after the home supporters had been given a near heart attack! In the 77th minute Preston were awarded a somewhat fortuitous penalty for handball against Vince Overson. It looked the ideal chance for the home side but Thomas's kick was hit straight at his namesake Martin Thomas in the Blues goal. Thankfully the 'heart attack' only lasted for a split second as Mooney was the first to react to the rebound and he slotted home.

It was on April 23rd ten years ago, 1985, when this corresponding fixture was played. Again it was at Deepdale but this time Hull City were the visitors. It was another year of desperation for North End but this time there was no reprieve as Hull ran out convincing 4 - 1 winners. Sadly it was a night of blunders from Preston's players and Hull won at a canter. Andy Flounders made it 1 - 0 on 35 minutes and just after half time John Kelly had a great chance to equalise. But he squandered that and from then on their was only one side in it. A penalty was harshly awarded against Simon Gibson and Stan MacEwan accepted the gift. Then Glen Campbell fumbled a shot to give Gareth Roberts an even easier goal before Steve Massey ran through a poor defence to make it 4 - 0. Gibson did pull one back with a terrific drive but it was no more than a consolation.

Twenty years ago exactly North End were again at home, this time entertaining Watford. Like the Birmingham match five years ago this game also ended in a 2 - 2 draw and in fact was North End's third such score-line in succession. Francis Burns gave Preston a first half lead and it took Watford until the hour mark to equalise with a neatly taken goal by Dennis Bond. It looked as though North End had snatched the points when John Bird headed an 80th minute goal to make it 2 - 1 but Watford's spirited fight was rewarded when Stewart Scullion dived spectacularly to head a second equaliser with just six minutes to go.

PAPER TALK

by Brian Ellis
Sports Editor
The Lancashire Evening Post

I always thought managers, like players, lived for Saturdays. But I discovered this week I was wrong.

Chatting with Gary Peters about the pressures on soccer bosses, I happened to ask him how he was coping with the strain of being in charge at North End.

"What strain? Lovely jubbly" he said as he completed yet another 15 hour shift at Deepdale.

"Love it son, just love it...apart from matchdays!"

And there's the rub. Life as a football boss would be sheer paradise - if only there weren't any games to worry yourself sick about. And the more we talked, the more I realised what a sad and lonely life football management must really be.

Here was a chap, only five months into his first job as No.1 unable to share the pleasure that you or I got from the Easter six-pointer against Wigan and Rochdale.

Here was a bloke who, within minutes of his team battering Bury 5-0 a few weeks ago, was feeling as miserable as sin.

And here was a fella who accepted the Manager of the Month award for March and a couple of hours later had chucked it in the bin.

Yet, to see him on the training field, like a schoolboy excused a physios exam, you would never know they are one and the same.

Peters is honest enough to admit he hates Saturdays. He also hates Tuesdays or Wednesdays - or, in the case of Easter, Mondays as well.

The thrill of winning doesn't even last long enough for him to get to the pub. The dark clouds start rolling in as soon as he's back in the changing rooms and while everyone else is doing high-fives and heading off for a few beers, the manager is slinking off to his room to be alone with his video.

"Why do you feel so rank?" I ask "Cos I'm already worrying about the next game even before we've got off the pitch from this one." he said.

"As a player and as a spectator you can savour a win. You don't have to start thinking about the next one until a couple of days later. But the manager is straight into the build-up as soon as he's got the last one out of the way, and it drives you bonkers."

Peters makes no secret of the fact that, since taking over as manager, his whole outlook has changed. He might get a few laughs training with the lads during the week, but the bulk of his time is spent carting the worries of the club around on his shoulders.

"The only time you can relax for sure is when the season is over and you've achieved something. You can fly off to Miami for a couple of weeks and forget about the game.

"But no sooner have you stretched out in that sunbed and shut your eyes, you start going over your plans for next season. And, before you know it, you're worrying about making a good start."

So why do managers do it? Why do they put themselves through such torture year after year, knowing the job is the most insecure you could have outside the SAS and the only certainty in life is the sack?

West Ham's Harry Redknapp is a perfect example. He should really have been lounging around now on the Med, soaking up the sun and not worrying about where his next few quid is coming from.

Instead he is chewing his fingernails down to the wick worrying about keeping a side in the Premiership.

Redknapp, you might remember, was almost killed in a road accident which claimed four other lives during the World Cup in Italy. He survived and could have had a massive insurance pay-out if he had only pretended he was unable to work for 18 months.

"I could have been a wealthy man" he said "But I couldn't do it. I wanted to get back to work. I was only at Bournemouth, but it was the most important thing in the world to me."

Now at Upton Park, there must be times he wished he'd taken the money and limped away to the sun.

Peters is very much like that too. Cash is nothing compared with managing a football club - and these guys actually mean it.

So wouldn't it be nice if North End won promotion in the play-offs at Wembley next month, just for an hour or so, the boss forgot all his worries and actually bought a round?

Ian Rigby writes.....

They played for both clubs

Sean Haslegrave, born and bred in Stoke-on-Trent, always wanted to be a professional footballer as a kid, and more than anything he wanted to play for his home town club, Stoke City. As a 15 year old he was rejected because they thought he was too small. Bitterly disappointed Sean left school and started work as an apprentice welder, but kept on playing in the local amateur leagues. Two years later Stoke City officials came knocking on his door and he was signed on by Tony Waddington. Having been given the opportunity Sean took advantage of it and progressed through Youth and Reserve teams before breaking into the first eleven, in 1970. He quickly settled in the side but he had a troublesome knee and had to have a cartilage operation thus missing Stoke's League Cup Final in 1972. After playing just over 100 League games for Stoke he was transferred to Brian Clough's Nottingham Forest. After a bright start Sean injured both ankles in quick succession and from then on struggled to regain his place, although he had proved his fitness in the Forest Reserves. North End took an interest and he was signed by Nobby Stiles on 29th September 1977 for around £25,000, taking Francis Burns' place in midfield. PNE at the time were sixth from the bottom of the old Third Division, having won just one of their first eight games. Manager Stiles said of Haslegrave in the club's programme, "he showed he is a First Division player by the way he quickly adapted to our style. Sean is not a big physical player (5ft 8ins) but he is a good footballer and will, I'm sure, add to the blend of our side." By the end of Haslegrave's first season at Deepdale promotion had been achieved. For three seasons Sean very rarely missed a game and was made team captain, but he eventually lost his place, after more than 100 games, to young Gordon Coleman. His next port of call was Crewe before playing for York City and finally Torquay United where he was player/coach/assistant manager to the late Cyril Knowles. After finishing his playing career he was eventually approached by Sam Allardyce to see if he would help out with PNE's youngsters. Sean jumped at the chance and became a Director of PNE's School of Excellence, which caters for youngsters from under ten up to YT level. At the moment Sean is now Leisure Activities Manager at the local Cardinal Newman College.

SEAN HASLEGRAVE

Football wins the Pools every Saturday

Every time you enter Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools or Littlewoods Spot the Ball you are helping the game at all levels. The Football Trust administers funds from the Pools, helping clubs to improve safety and comfort.

The Trust receives some £37 million every year, all of it coming directly or indirectly from Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters Pools and Littlewoods Spot the Ball.

Football also receives £8 million a year for the use of fixtures on coupons and Littlewoods, the game's biggest benefactor, is the first sponsor of the FA Cup.

Up and down the country, clubs are building new grounds, stands, seating and roofing. All depend on the support of the Football Trust and on the success of the football pools.

Lancashire Att 114

North End Reserves began their series of five consecutive away games when they visited Valley Parade to play Bradford City who are languishing near the bottom of the table.

It was a strong experienced Preston eleven that took the field with Damion Corcoran the only YTS player to start the game although Kevin Kilbane, John 'Tiny' Calligan and goalkeeper Spencer Harrison were all sat on the substitutes bench, trialist Kenny Weston continued in the side.

Graham Lancashire missed a scoring opportunity before he finally lobbed the 'keeper to give Preston a deserved half-time lead.

In the second period Raymond Sharp lost the ball in midfield but he redeemed himself to get back quickly to clear off the line. Ian Johnson snatched an equaliser for Bradford in a game North End really should have won, interesting to note how many locals bothered to watch their Reserve side with a gate of 114, North End players should think themselves lucky the support they get at Deepdale.

The Lancashire League Results and Reports.

Saturday 1st April 1995.
Blackpool 'B' (2) 3.
Symons (11th min), Capocci (28th min), Williams (Pen)(63rd min).
Preston N.E. 'B' (0) 2.
Bingham (48th min), McKenna (50th min).

Breezy Blackpool.
A biting wind from the nearby sea did not help North End in this local derby, neither did an inept referee who booked two North Enders, Kevin Kilbane (20 min) and John Calligan (21 min) for minor infringements, missing the worst offense on Colin Potts within minutes of the kick-off. A nasty leg injury meant he could not start the second half.

Mind you, to be honest North End did not help themselves with a poor first half performance resulting in the 'seasiders' being 2 - 0 up at the interval. Both goals being conceded within the first 30 mins. Both well taken opportunities being created by bad defensive errors. North End's best effort of the half was wasted by Kevin Kilbane (24th min) shooting wide of the goals after being gifted a precise positioned ball from a John Calligan/Stuart Bingham constructed attack.

Schoolboy substitute Gary Smith from the Blackpool area who has had the honour of playing for the Lancashire Schoolboys Team, replaced the injured Colin Potts for the second period in which many a game this season the North End lads have shown endeavour in turning games round to come out winners, but not this time! Although nearly, only to fail to a needlessly conceded penalty.

Two goals were scored by the revitalised North Enders within 5 minutes of the re-start - a 48th minute left wing corner was missed by John Calligan in front of goals but it fell to Stuart Bingham on the right side of the goal area, his shot with force behind it entered the far corner of the net giving the otherwise unbeatable seasiders keeper no chance. In this period of the game our lads were rampant, two minutes later Paul McKenna shot from a similar position as Stuart Bingham's took a deflection off a Blackpool player to end up in the net. The problem was they could not sustain the pressure and although creating plenty of chances in front of the goals it was to no avail. Failing to create another goal to take the lead, they fell behind on the 63rd minute to a cruel self-inflicted blow, conceding a penalty when keeper David Lucas fouled a Blackpool forward on a one-on-one situation. Lucas was lucky not to be sent off. With little fuss the seasiders No.11 Williams made no mistake from the spot. The game ended 3 - 2 to the home side, a bitter blow to our lads' aspirations of a second consecutive championship. Maybe this result could be our downfall at the end of the season. Only time will tell. A very disappointing result!

STUART BINGHAM

Team:- Lucas: Stewart, Hayton (capt), McKenna, Sutton, Corcoran, Potts, Weston, Calligan, Bingham, Kilbane.
Subs - Smith for Potts (45th min), Lawler (not used), Harrison (not used).

Saturday 8th April 1995.
Carlisle United 'A' (0) 1.
Preston N.E. 'A' (1) 4.
Away at Carlisle. Goalscorers:- Kilbane, Lawler, Calligan and McKenna.
Team:- Lucas, Stewart, Taylor, McKenna, Hayton, Corcoran, Lawler, Potts, Calligan, Potts, Kilbane.
Subs - Hamilton (not used), McCrone for Lawler (70th min).

Note!! On the team sheet I received Colin Potts was named twice. I will try to rectify this query before the end of the season.

FANSCENE I.S.A.

PRESTON NEOSC

Welcome to what is hopefully our penultimate home League game, before the play-offs! It's Torquay United and again 3 points are vital. The last time we met was a real night to remember, a 4 - 1 victory following a first leg 2 - 0 defeat. The atmosphere that night was something that will live with us for many a year. Let's recreate that special backing for North End today.

Player of The Year/Personality of The Year.

Yes next Thursday 27th April 1995 8.00pm. is our next full ISA meeting when guests will attend from the club and we will be voting for our Player and Personality of The Season. Please support us and help us support the club. London Road Labour Club, Preston.

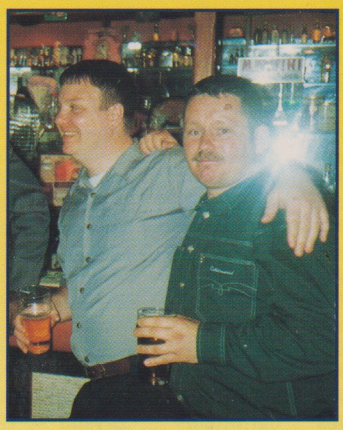
ISA All Stars.

This morning the mighty ISA All Stars made a return to action against a side of Torquay supporters, the result of which (providing we won), will be announced at half time. Another game is being lined up against Bolton so if you're interested and at the peak of physical fitness with Football League experience, we need you. In fact we need 11 of you!

Hartlepool - Home
Scunthorpe - Away

For our final two League games one here at Deepdale and then at Glandford Park we have decided to ask you, the supporters, be it ISA or OSC or individuals, to attend both games in club colours.
Yes for both games we want a mass of White, Blue and Yellow all around the grounds.
Please join in, wear your colours and support North End all the way to Wembley.

Loud and Proud,
Come on You Whites.



ON THE MEND

Avid PNE fan Malcolm Singleton (pictured above) was involved in a serious road traffic accident shortly after the Blackpool reserve match in February. Fortunately thirty year old Malcolm is making a good recovery.

Best Wishes from
All at Deepdale.

(Right) Simon Davey proving to be the bargain of the season. He was on the mark at Rochdale in our 1-0 win on Easter Monday.

Baxi on the Ball.

Shown here is our centre forward, the incredibly popular Baxi Bermuda RG.

The rest of the squad includes a wide range of gas firefronts, wall heaters and boilers, which perform to the same exacting standards of premium quality and High performance.

Phone Baxi on 01772 695555, maybe you'll become a supporter.
